Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. If We ask you questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms, You must tell Us anything that You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions. You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If You do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Matters that affect our decision to insure You and on what terms

For the purposes of Your Duty of Disclosure, the following matters will affect our decision to insure You and or the terms that may be offered:

Your Drivers

Where Your drivers have:

- 2 traffic infringements in the current 12 months
- lost their licence within the past 5 years
- a medical condition that could inhibit their driving, such as blackouts, dizziness and diabetes
- had a criminal conviction in the past 5 years

You

Where:

- You have had an insurance policy for similar cover declined or cancelled or you have been refused renewal of your policy
- You have been bankrupt at any time in the past 5 years
- where your company has been insolvent or under administration or had a receiver and manager appointed
- You have been a director of a company that went into liquidation in the past 5 years

Vehicle

Where:

- Your Vehicle, while owned by You, has been uninsured for the past 3 months
- You are not the registered owner of the Vehicle

Under Insurance

If the Sum Insured for Your Vehicle is less than 85% of the Market Value at the time of an Accident or event, You will become Your own insurer for a portion of the loss or damage to Your Vehicle. The Co-Insurance clause is set out in the Claims Conditions.

No Cover if Rights "Signed Away"

This policy does not cover loss, destruction, damage or legal liability in respect of which any right which you may otherwise have against any person is excluded or limited by reason of any agreement you may enter into.

Privacy

Pen Underwriting and the Insurer(s) handle your personal information with care and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles. We collect personal information about you to provide you with insurance and insurance related services. We may disclose your personal information to third parties for the purposes described in our Privacy Policy, including related entities, insurers, reinsurers, agents and service providers, some of whom may be located in the United States of America, United Kingdom, Germany, Sweden and India. By asking us to provide you with insurance and insurance related services, you consent to the collection, use and disclosure (including overseas disclosure) of your personal information for the purposes described in our Privacy Policy. Where you provide personal information about others, you represent to us that you have made them aware of that disclosure and of our Privacy Policy and that you have obtained their consent. If you do not consent to provide us with the personal information that we request, or withdraw your consent to the use and disclosure of your personal information at any stage, we may not be able to offer you the products or provide the services that you seek. For information about how to access and or correct the personal information we hold about you or if you have any concerns or complaints, ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy or visit www.penunderwriting.com.au.
